

Kevin Burgher, B.Sc., CIP, C.TECH, CCEP
Sr. Project Manager / TFS Environmental Advisor
ENVIRONMENTAL SOLUTIONS® Remediation Services

Kevin is a Senior Project Manager with experience in basic to complex, high profile environmental remediation projects. Kevin has managed the clean up and restoration of over 250 different residential, commercial and transportation-related spills and releases. Kevin is comfortable working in both civil and tort legal environments and has provided expert opinion.

Education and Achievements

- Certificate of Participation, Vapour Intrusion Pathway - 2009
- Registered Site Professional for the Province of Nova Scotia - 2006
- Canadian Certified Environmental Practitioner (CCEP) Certification - 2005
- Dalhousie University, Halifax, NS - Bachelor of Science
- Dal Tech, Halifax, NS
 - Environmental Health & Safety
 - Principles of Groundwater Flow
 - Environmental Auditing
 - Project - Developing an EMS
- Chartered Insurance Professional (CIP)
- Nova Scotia Construction Safety Association
 - Emergency First Aid Training
 - Safety Orientation
 - Confined Space Awareness
- 40 Hour Hazardous Waste Operation and Emergency Response Training - 2004
- Risk Based Corrective Action (RBCA) - March 2000
- Eastern Canada Response Corporation Exercise - September 1999
- Oil Tank Committee - Developing New Standards for Domestic Oil Tanks
- Member of the Society of Certified Engineering Technicians and Technologist of NS